Holistic Aspirations: 2020

Mission Statement

To encourage high levels of achievement through the enthusiasm and joy of learning, coupled with a creative curriculum and a holistic approach to education that reflects Christian values and supports our community. We guarantee accessibility and availability to all.'

Developing potential

Intent – ‘life in all its fullness.’

Hollins...

Christian values: A happy, secure, safe and nurturing environment, accepting cultural diversity and giving identity, meaning and purpose in life.

‘Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.’

Galatians 4 22 -23

‘For you are all one in Christ Jesus’

Galatians 3:28

Love of learning: Stimulating and engaging life-long learning, where pupils, parents and teachers to enthuse learners.

Not merely the accumulation of knowledge, but to be part of a vibrant community where opinion and doubt can be expressed. Concerns and hopes, questions and counter-questions, and, crucially, exploration and fun. To develop skills and attitudes suited to our volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous world.

Nigel Rayment 2016

Optimum Achievement: Pupils develop as independent and confident learners, have high aspirations and realise their full potential.

‘There are the less tangible skills we teach; such as how to work in a team, think critically, and be curious about the things they encounter each day.’

Jennifer Rita Nichols 2013

Unique Education: A highly inclusive and personalised education that engages disenchanted learners.

An educator’s most important task, one might say his holy duty, is to see to it that no child is discouraged at school and that a child who enters school already discouraged regains his self-confidence through his school and his teacher

Alfred Adler 1870 – 1937

Global citizens: Pupils who are able to make a positive contribution to society and care for their environment.

Taking an active role in their community, and work with others to make our planet more equal, fair and sustainable.

Supporting Charities.

Holistic education: A broad and balanced curriculum, allowing for creativity and nurturing a sense of wonder

Where each person finds identity, meaning, and purpose in life through connections to the community, to the natural world, and to spiritual value such as compassion and peace

Music has a measurable impact on our bodies and can even boost our immune system. Singing requires us to breathe deeply, making us happier.

Elena Aguilar 2013

Being outside, even for just a few minutes a day, can heighten our state of well-being ... moving our bodies increases our happiness.
